

Sara + Michael

Hello,

We have so much respect for you. Your strength and courage are truly admirable, and we are holding you in our thoughts as you go through this difficult time.

We can't wait to get to know you and learn how to work together to create a beautiful life for your child! We are overwhelmed with gratitude and are truly honored that you are taking the time to learn about us.

*With Love,
Sara + Michael*

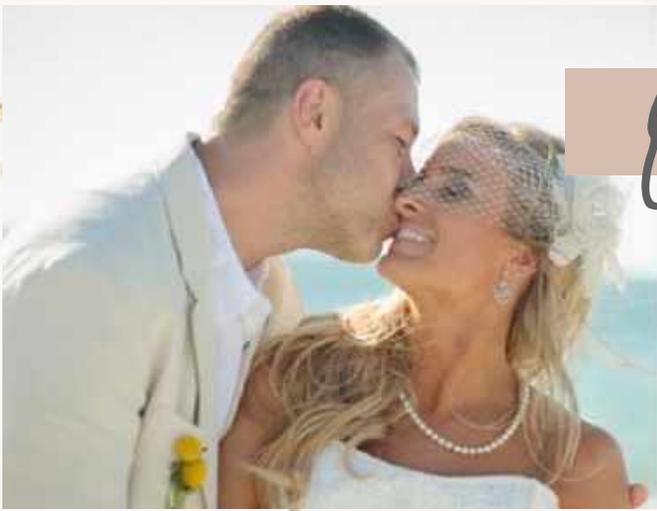

*We hope you will see that we value
LOVE, FAMILY, FRIENDS, and LAUGHTER*

Our Love

We are grateful every day that we fell in love and married nine years ago. We consider each other partners in everything, and we are so lucky to have a strong relationship filled with respect, trust, honesty, and love. We cherish all the years we have loved one another, bonded with amazing friends & family, traveled all over, spending summer nights having picnics on the beach, and even just enjoying a cup of coffee together in our back yard.

However, the greatest love we share is for our daughter and the joys of parenting. Becoming parents together has been life's greatest gift, and we cannot wait to become parents again.

We look forward to a little one making us a family of four and joining in all our fun adventures, cozy nights at home, and being loved by all those we love and love us!

Meet Sara

The best way to describe Sara would be that she is like sunshine. She is always happy and bright. She is a proud wife and mother, is kind-hearted, intelligent, strong-willed, and has a love for life. There isn't anything Sara wouldn't do for the people she loves. Sara works as a social worker, and all the people she has the privilege of working with adores her. But, Sara's most loved and important job is being a mother. Sara is an incredible mama to our daughter, Hudson, and goes to great lengths to show Hudson how loved and adored she is. A child will know that they are loved beyond compare with Sara as their mama, and she will support them in all that they do and encourage them to reach for their dreams. Sara will be an extraordinary mother of two!

Meet Michael

Michael is always smiling! He is extremely hard working at his job as a computer engineer and goes above and beyond for his family. He is thoughtful, attentive, and his great sense of humor keeping us laughing all the time. Michael is a complete family man, and watching him be a father to our daughter Hudson is so beautiful. He is her constant playmate, and it doesn't matter what she wants to play Michael is there for it, tea parties, princess dress up, and baking cookies. I am thrilled that Michael will be a father again because I know that a child will be loved fully without limits by him. Michael will always make his children a priority, and they will always know that they have a best friend, a confident, and a protector with Michael as their father.

Our Family

Family and friends are the most important part of our lives. Everyone is eager for us to welcome a new family member, and they cannot wait to shower them with unconditional love, support, and lots of fun! Our children will always have a community of incredible people around to encourage them to shine their brightest!

Meet Hudson

Hudson Honor is our daughter, and she is so excited to become a big sister! She can't wait to give her sibling kisses, share her toys, and have a partner-in-crime. We foresee Hudson and her sibling playing in our background on their swing set, inground trampoline, swimming in our pool, and running around at the beach. Hudson also can't wait to have a little one join in on our annual vacations - they are going to have a ball!

Meet Olive

Olive is our 6-year-old rescue pup, and she is an absolute joy. She is playful and gentle. Olive is incredible with kiddos and is convinced she is Hudson's 2nd mama, so she will undoubtedly be protective and loving of a new family member.

Where We Live

We love where we live! Our house is located on a quiet, beautiful street in Connecticut, and we are so lucky to have a pool in the backyard for lots of summer fun. We can't wait to become a family of four and have our little one join us in building new memories, enjoying our special holiday family traditions and sweet nights at home cuddled up together reading children's books or watching movies.

Fun Times Ahead

We believe life is meant to be celebrated! We are always looking to have a great time. Whether we are spending time on the family boat or swimming in the backyard, we are sure to be laughing and enjoying some great food. We LOVE all things holiday, and we go all out for Christmas, Thanksgiving, Easter, and Halloween. Our birthday celebrations are over-the-top, and have been known to throw a themed party just because. We also love to travel and explore all the beauty and adventure the world has to offer. We can't wait to have a little one join in all our fun! We also can't wait to discover what they find exciting and fun so that we can nurture their joy!

What We Value

We value our friends and family more than anything. We will always encourage our children to be loyal and kind and seek connection to those they love and all the people they meet in their life's paths. We will encourage our children to work hard and achieve their goals but never to lose sight of what is most important in life; shared time with friends and family. We will always strive for our children to be honest, respectful, and loving. And every day we will make sure to laugh! Our home is and will always be filled with love and laughter!

We Promise

We promise to love your child unconditionally and to cherish them and you every single day. We promise that your child will always know of your deep love for them. We will do everything to ensure that they are proud of who they are and their unique story. We promise to encourage your child to dream big, and we will support them with endless opportunities and education. We will be your child's biggest cheerleaders and love them with our whole hearts.

We have so much love in our heart for you, and no matter the decision you make, we know it will be the right one for you and your child! Thank you again for taking the time to learn about us and for considering us as parents!

Love,
Sara + Michael
