

Brenda + Gregory

Dear Expectant Mom

We admire your courage in making this difficult decision. Your child will always know of your strength and love. We can't wait to get to know you and create a loving family that will ensure your child has an amazing life filled with opportunity and unconditional love.

Words cannot express how grateful we are to you for taking the time to learn about us! We hope you'll see all the fun and joy we have in our lives and all the love we have to share.

Love,
Brenda + Greg

Our Story

We met almost a decade ago in New York City through a mutual friend who was hosting an afternoon get together for Sunday Football. We clicked right away! We had so much in common; we both love long walks, the Yankees, cooking family meals together, and watching suspense-filled investigation shows!

So after just a couple of dates, we both knew we had found our person.

Three years later, we said, "I do," on the beach - one of our favorite places! Our lives are full of adventure, and we can't wait to have a kiddo join in our fun. We are excited to share our love of the outdoors, to cook delicious meals together, to be silly and share great laughs, and for quiet nights at home watching our favorite movies! Brenda also can't wait to teach the little one some Spanish. We know our lives will be bigger and brighter than we can ever imagine when we become parents!

A note from Gregory about Brenda

Brenda is by far the kindest and most caring person I know. She is strong, independent, and compassionate. Brenda has a great sense of humor, and her warm and loving personality means that children absolutely adore her! Brenda is excellent at her job as a sales representative and loves getting to work from home while she connects with many interesting clients daily. Brenda has a natural curiosity about nature and the world around her and will encourage and provide a child with endless opportunities to explore the world and who they are. I have no doubt that Brenda will be a phenomenal mother, and I can't wait to see her unconditionally and whole-heartedly love our child!

A note from Brenda about Gregory

Greg is hard working, witty, and extremely intelligent. I call him the human encyclopedia because he can offer up a fact about just about anything. Greg is a history buff, and I love to learn from him because he is fantastic at telling a good story that keeps me entertained. Greg works as a lawyer specializing in property taxes and loves working on cases. He says it's like solving a new puzzle every day. Even though Greg is a smarty pants, he also happens to be very funny and brings a sense of humor to all that he does! Greg will be an incredible father who will protect and love a child above all else and make everyday fun and memorable for them. Whether he is reading them a story or teaching them how to fix something, Greg will be our child's biggest advocate!

Our neighborhood playground

We love our house! It is so unique as it is 200 years old! It was built in 1821 - it has so much character with a lot of history.

We love hosting holiday gatherings and sharing meals with friends and family in our home. We also love that our home is located in a fabulous neighborhood with lots of kiddos around, excellent schools, and we are just 5 minutes away from an epic playground and the beach - we can't wait to build sandcastles with our little one! We're looking forward to sharing the fun of holidays with all our traditions like decorating the Christmas tree, baking cookies, and going ice skating at Rockefeller ice rink. We look forward to roasting marshmallows in the backyard, playing board games together, taking long walks with our dog Winston and spending cozy nights in watching movies. We can't wait to share our home with a child and make memories that will last a lifetime together!

Our fabulous Family

Karen and Richard

Greg's mom and dad, Karen and Richard, live just 20 minutes away from us! Every other week we have a special Sunday supper where we eat delicious meals and share lively conversation. We know we will be seeing them a lot more when a little one arrives as they want to be as involved as possible. Karen and Richard cannot wait to become grandparents and spoil a child with love!

Mabel and Jorge

Brenda's parents, Mabel and Jorge, live in Florida. We see them at least twice a year.

We know that trips to see each other will become more frequent when a little one arrives as they want to be an important part of our child's life. Mabel and Jorge will love our child beyond imagination and cannot wait to welcome a little one into their hearts!

Winston

Winston is our adorable Maltese/Shih Tzu mix pup who we love maybe a little too much - we take him on 4 mile long walks every day, and on the weekends, we always visit a dog park.

Winston will be a fantastic companion to a child, and we cannot wait to see Winston cuddled up with a little one.

Let the good times roll

Our Promise

We promise to teach your child to be kind to others, give back to their community, work hard, and create time to play and enjoy life. We will teach them to value their family and to be a great friend. Most importantly, we promise to love your child unconditionally and provide them with a safe, loving home that will enable them to be whoever they dream of being.

Thank you again for learning about us and our hopes for the future. We are truly honored to have you consider us as parents!
