

Nick and Breonia

Dear Expectant Parents,

Thank you so much for taking the time to learn more about our family. Let us start by saying we have been praying for you and your child throughout this journey. Please know how much love and respect we have for you already. We know that you want what is best for your baby and we hope that you will see how much love and happiness our family has to give. You are so brave and truly a hero to us. We are praying for you daily that God gives you all the strength and courage you need as you navigate through this process.

about us

Nick and Breonia

Nick and I have been married for almost two years. Our first date was spent walking one of the beautiful beaches in Florida. Very soon after meeting we knew we were meant to be together forever. It was an instant connection that neither of us had ever felt before. Some time after, we were married in a small intimate ceremony under a gazebo with beautiful live oak trees at White Point Garden in historic South Carolina. In attendance were our parents, my grandmother, and our boys. Nick has two boys from his first marriage. We all blended into a family so naturally like it was always meant to be. We knew early on in our relationship that we wanted to add a little girl to our family. I was involved in a car wreck in 2019 that left me unable to get pregnant. Adoption is something that has always been in both of our hearts and something that we are very passionate about. Currently our days are filled with so much love and laughter as a family of 4. We can't wait to add another sweet child to our family.

A little about Nick

Nick was born in Florida. At the age of 8 he moved with his mom and stepdad to Missouri. He was blessed to grow up with lots of cousins and enjoyed spending time with them while staying at their grandparents' houses in the summer. His mother always made it a priority for him to get to know his extended family. While living in Missouri, Nick enjoyed playing many different sports including hockey, football, and soccer. After high school he moved back to Florida where he attended and graduated college. Nick enjoys playing golf, fishing, sports events, and running. While at home you can find him catching up on a good history documentary, gardening, or studying his bible. In his professional life he excels in his career as a business development director. If he could have one superpower it would be the ability to teleport so he could visit all of the beautiful architecture and historical landmarks in the world.

A little about Breonia

Breonia was born in South Carolina. At the age of 3 she moved with her mom and dad to a small town in Tennessee. She is very close with her mother and grandmother and think the world of both of them. Growing up she rode horses and enjoyed time outside playing with her pet rabbit and pig Delilah. She was also involved in competitive cheerleading from her early years through her college career. She moved to Florida in 2021 to be closer to her mom and stepdad. Breonia is a personal banker and loan officer. While at work she enjoys getting to help other fulfill their financial goals and dreams. When not at work she loves traveling, yoga, concerts, theatre, sports, Disney, and her precious 4 fur babies. She is also involved in serving others at both of their churches while at home and at their beach house. If she could have one superpower it would be time travel so she could go back in time and witness some of the best rock bands in history live.

HOW NICK THINKS OF BREONIA

Breonia is my life partner and soulmate. She is without a doubt the most generous, kind, loving, and Godly person I know. She makes me strive to be a better person every day by motivating and supporting me. She is so caring and always willing to help someone or something in need. She loves all animals but dogs hold a very special place in her heart, especially her cocker spaniel Lucky. She is an amazing mother to our two boys. Watching her day in and day out take care of our children and love them melts my heart. She was born to be a mom.

HOW BREONIA THINKS OF NICK

Nick is one of the most special humans in the world. The way he chooses to lead our family through grace and his love for Christ is one of the things I admire about him most. He has so much patience with the boys and goes above and beyond for the people he loves. He is definitely the chef in our household (although he leaves the baking and breakfast meals up to me haha). He is so full of life and is always up for our next great adventure. He can be so sweet and tender in those special moments, then the life of the party and funniest man I know in others. This man will forever hold my heart. I can't wait to see him excel at being a dad of 3!

a little bit about our boys
Clyde and Brooks

Clyde is 8 and in the third grade. He enjoys playing his Nintendo switch and spending time shooting hoops, throwing the football, and playing the drums. He is our gentle, over thinking, and caring child. Brooks is 5 and in PreK. He enjoys taking karate lessons and playing dress up pretending he is a ninja warrior. He is our fierce, always on go, marching to the beat of his own drum child who idolizes his big brother and wants to do everything that he does.

our Friends and Family

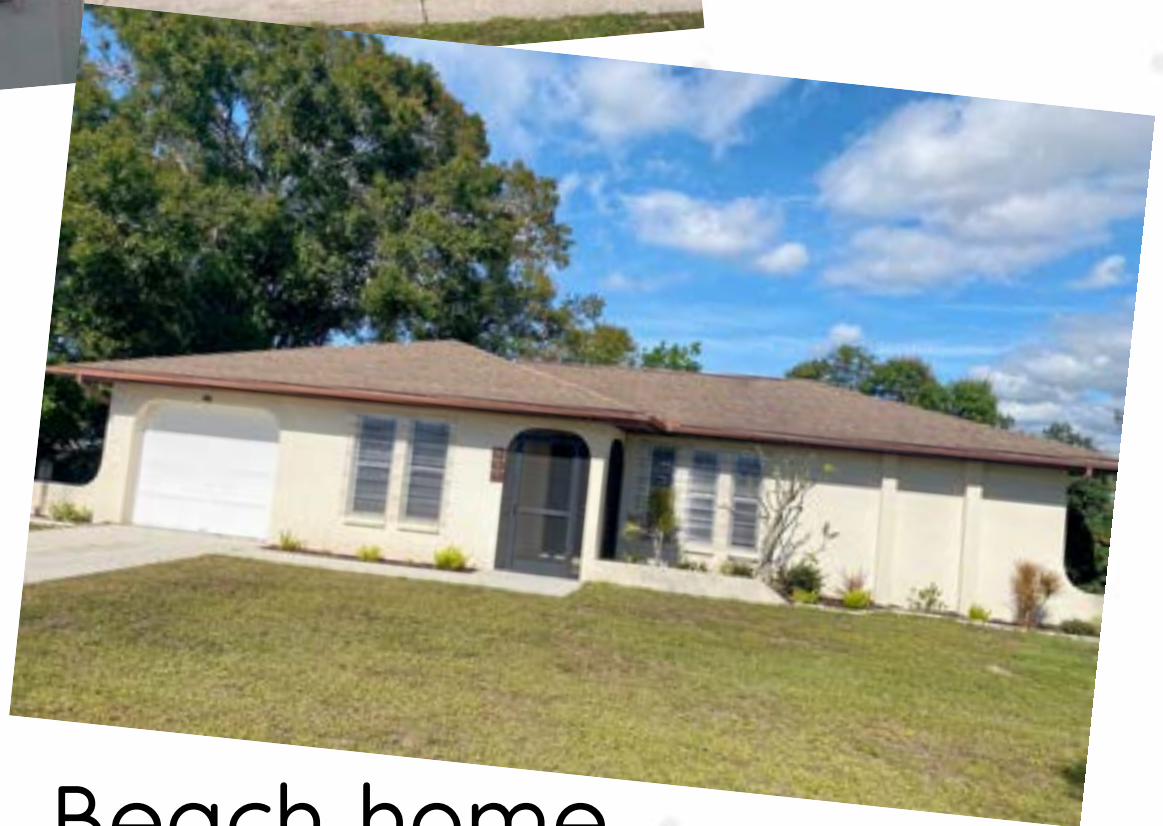

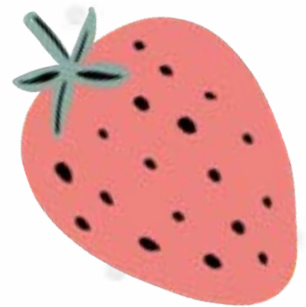

Being around family and friends is something that we both enjoy and prioritize. We find it extremely important for our children to know and have personal relationships with their immediate and extended families. Hosting holidays, grilling on the weekends, and watching sporting events together are some of our favorite times to invite everyone over to our home. Having the love and support of our families means the world to us. Everyone is so excited to embark on this journey with us and cannot wait to see the family grow.
