

Jeanine and Anthony

Dear Potential Birth Parents,

We are Jeanine and Anthony. Our paths first crossed when we were just kids in grade school. We reunited at our 20-year high school reunion and it felt like we had finally found the person we had been searching for all these years. The spark was undeniable, and as we rekindled our friendship, it blossomed into a deep, loving relationship that has only grown stronger since that magical moment. We have been together for 9 years and just celebrated our third wedding anniversary. We profoundly appreciate not only the qualities that initially drew us to each other but also the little things that make each of us unique.

Our bond deepened through shared adventures, from traveling to exploring new activities. It seemed we just loved being together, no matter what we were doing. Our shared love for sun-soaked destinations and adventures is a big part of our connection. Each trip not only offers us a chance to unwind but also allows us to create lasting memories together. Whether it's exploring under the sea or simply enjoying the scenery, these vacations truly reflect our passion for adventure and relaxation. It's this deep love and respect for each other that we wish to extend to our future family. We appreciate you taking the time to learn more about us...

"Our family is built on love, and love knows no bounds."

From the moment I saw Jeanine at our high school reunion I knew it was the first day of the rest of my life. She was like a burst of vibrant colors that lit up my world. We immediately fell back into old habits of being great friends. Her beauty, both inside and out, is striking, but it's her unwavering support and loyalty that makes her truly exceptional.

Jeanine's best attributes are her compassion and resilience. She consistently strives to understand and support others in their journeys, offering a listening ear and a helping hand whenever needed. Even in challenging situations, Jeanine maintains a positive outlook that not only uplifts her spirit but also inspires those around her to overcome obstacles with hope and determination.

Outside of her rewarding career as an Assistant Principal, she has a deep love for her friends and family. Creating new holiday traditions is what she cherishes most. Baking holiday cookies with her nieces and nephews is a memory she holds near and dear to her heart. Continuing to make memories with a child of her own one day is what she looks forward to the most. She brings fun and adventure into our lives, and I am beyond grateful to call her my wife. I couldn't imagine embarking on this journey of parenthood with anyone else.

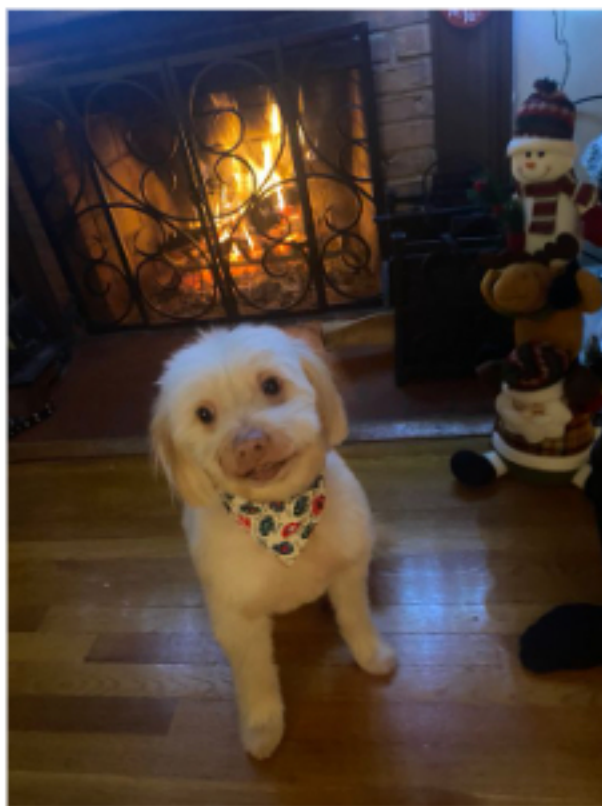

Anthony...

Anthony came back into my life as a breath of fresh air. His combination of humor, success, and security was a magnet to me. His compassionate spirit and generous heart are things I fell for almost instantly. He is a man who makes it a point to make our home a sanctuary of love and comfort. His dedication to our relationship and future family is apparent in all that he does.

Anthony's best attribute is his unwavering dedication to others; he always goes above and beyond to ensure that everyone around him feels cared for and supported. His selflessness and commitment to the well-being of others create a nurturing environment that inspires those fortunate enough to know him.

When Anthony isn't being a creator at the restaurant he manages, you can usually find him embracing nature through gardening, it's one of his favorite hobbies. Anthony's presence is calming, his love is profound, and I consider myself incredibly fortunate to call him my partner. I look forward to the joys and challenges of parenthood that we will face together.

Our home...

We have an adorable 11-year-old mixed breed dog named Cooper, who has been a cherished member of our family for many years. He has a gentle demeanor and a playful spirit, making him the perfect friend for children to grow up with. We can already picture the wonderful bond they'll share, as Cooper loves being around family and is incredibly affectionate.

We reside in the town we both grew up, which holds a special place in our hearts. The neighborhood strikes a lovely balance between being peaceful and welcoming. It's generally quiet, making it an ideal environment for families and children. However, there are also moments of lively activity, especially on weekends and during community events.

Christmas is one of the most important times of the year for us, filled with joy and cherished traditions. One of our favorite aspects of the holiday is decorating the house. From hanging twinkling lights to setting up festive ornaments, transforming our home into a winter wonderland is truly magical. Each decoration holds special memories, and it creates a warm and inviting atmosphere that gets everyone into the holiday spirit.

Our Family...

My parents, Jane and Walter, were happily married for 51 years. Unfortunately, my dad passed away last year. He is sorely missed. They have an unwavering amount of dedication and selflessness. They have consistently gone above and beyond to provide for my siblings and me, ensuring that we have access to opportunities and experiences that they didn't have in their own childhood. Their tireless efforts to create a better life for us reflect their deep love and commitment, and they inspire us to appreciate the value of hard work and resilience. She is an amazing grandmother, enjoying every dance recital and sporting event. She can't wait to welcome a new baby into her life.

My mom, Linda, is a truly remarkable woman. She is hardworking and fiercely dedicated to her family, always putting her own needs aside to ensure that my brother and I had everything we needed while growing up. Her resilience and nurturing spirit have instilled in us important values, and her sacrifices have shaped our lives in profound ways. My mom is a pillar of support, always advocating for her sons and encouraging us to pursue our dreams. She is so excited to become a grandmother.

We appreciate our family and the joy that children bring to our lives. We're excited to continue creating cherished memories as we look forward to welcoming a little one into our family!

Thank you so much for taking the time to read our profile. We hope that it has given you a glimpse into our lives and has shown you the love that we and our families have to share with a child. Furthermore, we hope it demonstrates our ability to provide a loving, caring supportive, nurturing, and stable, environment. We both were brought up in warm caring homes and have looked forward ever since to replicate the wonderful upbringing we experienced for the next generation.

Although we don't have children of our own yet, we absolutely cherish the time we spend with our nieces and nephews. We love being active and creative together, often whipping up homemade pizzas in the kitchen, which is always a fun and messy experience! The kids enjoy getting involved, from rolling out the dough to choosing their favorite toppings.

As we move forward on this journey, we remain hopeful and eager to embrace the joys and challenges of parenthood. We are committed to providing a child with all the love, guidance, and support they need to flourish and grow.. We can't wait to share our lives with a child and to embark on this incredible adventure together.

Warmest regards,
Jeanine and Anthony
